

Thank you all for coming along to Basildon tonight. Based out of the very busy new Wetherspoons pub in the pedestrianised shopping centre, there were a whole host of controls to go for, ranging in points value from 10-50. No-one came close to getting them all, but as always on these score events there was an excellent array of routes taken.

It was mostly on street running tonight (although at least one runner managed to try to battle through the green on the map!). Thanks to Chris for planning an excellent course to make everyone think.

Always good to see new runners and we had 5 runners taking part in their first run of the series. Hope you enjoyed it!

On the long course, it was once again Keith Bennett who took the highest net score, and held on for the win on handicap as well. With Jackie Sibthorp not running tonight, the 15 point on the night bonus picked up by Keith may be crucial come the end of the series, as he now holds a 37 point lead at the top.

It is much closer on the Short course. Rachel Read has taken a 3 point lead over Colin Jackson. In today's race it was Chloe Fowler who scored the highest net score, and took the handicap win as well.

Details of the scoring can be found at this link

Details of the all the results and future fixtures in the series can be found on the series homepage.

If you missed the event tonight, but want to run it on Anytime catchup, details are on the series homepage, including maps and instructions. You will still score points for the league (if you run in the next 2 weeks), subject to an Anytime penalty of 6 mins (long) or 4 mins (short).

Next up is Chelmer Village Chelmer Village in a couple of weeks.

HAVOC's next forest event is at Weald Park on the 8th March. Details here.